BRING HIM HOME CLEAN

Peace and Thanksgiving

Peace is come.

"The Captains and the Kings depart."

Albert, the true-hearted, riding proudly at the head of his little army of unconquerable Belgians, will see again his beloved Brussels.

Through all the world runs a deep hymn of joy and Thanksgiving.

France, the superb, may tarry now to note the reverent homage poured at her steadfast feet.

England may call to her home ports her mighty fleet behind whose bulwark Liberty has sheltered.

Italy may turn again to the gracious things of life, her bitter hour of travail ended.

And the "lesser peoples" who through all the four years of agony and unspeakable heartache have done their share eagerly and well, may look into the future unafraid.

To America, humbly and patiently learning the grim rules of war from her elder brothers, peace means, relief beyond words and thanksgiving beyond telling in a thousand thousand homes.

No nation ever stood behind its lads in battle with the passion of service America has given. But that service is not done, nor will be done until they come again to our shores as clean in body and mind as they are now.

It is particularly happy that the seven great agencies which have taken the friendliness of home to our soldiers should be asking the American people for $250,000,000 as peace comes.

Who is there of us who out of the greatness of his thanksgiving will not give and give and give—now, when with the stress of strife at an end, the days of idleness tempt our lads; now, when they feel the goal won, they let slip their own iron discipline of themselves; now, when they turn their eyes to home and descend into the black swamp of homesickness.

Now, more than ever, we need this great sum to keep up their high ideals. And it is only the deepest wisdom, for to these returning hosts we shall hand in but a few years the destiny of our beloved land.

New England gave the world its greatest ideals of liberty and freedom. Let it keep the faith by doing its share in this work, yes, many-fold more than its share.

Private Arthur M. Smith, who is with Co. A, 18th Infantry, in France sends regards to Rockland friends and would like to hear from some of them. He is a son of Mrs. Adelle F. Smith.

Three torpedo boat destroyers have been tried on the Rockland course the past week. The government censorship relative to naval matters has not yet been lifted, and details cannot be given.

Mrs. Sarah Jackson, who lives with her son, L. C. Jackson, Camden street, fell in her room last Friday night and broke her collar bone and one of her ribs. Mrs. Jackson is quite aged, being nearly 83.

Mrs. Ashley O. Crockett is employed as stenographer in the office of County Attorney Wilbur. Miss Gladys McCane, who has been in Mr. Wilbur's employ, has resumed her studies at Rockland Commercial College.

The open meeting of the Baptist Men's League takes place next Wednesday evening, and right welcome it will be after the extra long recess. Prof. Daniel Stanwood of Bowdoin College, who spent seven years at Oxford, will discuss a most timely subject—"The New Nations Evolving out of the World Peace."

Miss Frances B. Davis, chief yeoman, has been transferred from the Naval Training Station in this city to the office of Lieut. Commander C. F. Snow, Little building, Boston. Miss Davis has been on duty here since this Naval Reserve section was established, and had the distinction of being the first Maine girl to enroll in that service. Friends will congratulate her upon the fulfillment of her desire for advancement, and in securing a desirable assignment on the staff of the naval force commander.

The calling off of Red Cross surgical dressings work has not been due to the fact that peace seems imminent, but to the fact that there are in the warehouses in France and in the United States an ample reserve supply to meet every contingency which may arise. This reserve supply is such that it would be most unwise to do any further surgical dressings work at the moment. The conditions in the countries of our Allies are such that there is unlimited need for garments for civilian relief. Refugee work at this time is the emergency and should be stimulated, to its utmost. On account of the coming winter, a rapid production of refugee garments will mean infinitely greater service in saving life than any other type of work, in fact, one garment now will be of more value than many garments in three or four months. The Red Cross workrooms are not open for surgical dressing, but will be open for sewing.

The Rebekah Sewing Circle will meet Tuesday afternoon at Odd Fellows hall for work.

Boxing victories have come to be a habit with the Lavry five. Last night at Kennedy's they again defeated the Stevens team 43 pins. Summary next issue.

The steamers Westport and Southport, which have belonged to the Eastern Steamship Lines, were brought down from Camden yesterday and delivered to the government. The work of coaling them for service at a Southern port, probably Norfolk, was immediately begun.

At a special meeting of King Solomon Temple Chapter tonight the M. M. M. degree will be conferred upon Clarence H. Merrill, Overseas Sarkesian, Clarence Shaw, Fred Lincolin, Clarence Cain and John W. Oakley. The Past and Most Excellent degrees will be conferred on the same candidates at another special meeting next Tuesday night.

Rear Admiral A. S. Snow U.S.N. (retired) was recently ordered back into service and assigned to command the 1st Division at Boston Navy Yard. Ever since the war began Admiral Snow has been filled with intense longing to have a hand in it, and while his natural preference would have been sea duty, he is immensely pleased to be on the active list once more.

At a meeting of the Public Library trustees Saturday the board of officers was elected: William T. Cobb, president; E. A. Butler, vice president; J. C. Perry, secretary. Miss Burbank was re-elected librarian, Miss Martha Cobb assistant librarian and Donald H. Karl janitor. The reports showed a balance of $1000 in hand to carry all affairs of the library comfortably through to the end of the fiscal year, Feb. 1.

There is a large enrollment at the Rockland Commercial College this fall. All but two of the students are young women who are taking the stenographic course. Grace Libby and Gladys Clark, both of Camden, completed a special course in stenography this week. Bernice Whitney of Thomaston is preparing for a civil service examination in stenography and typewriting. Maurice Bowers of Camden has graduated from the business department. Mr. Bowers has a position with the Maine Central Railroad.

The annual meeting of the Chapin Class was held in the Universalist parlors Monday evening. Reports of the various committees were given and these officers elected: President, Miss Myrtle Herrick; vice president, Mrs. Faith Berry; secretary, Mrs. Susie Davis; treasurer, Miss Edith MacAlman. During the winter the class made 15 pairs of slippers, 8 pairs of quilts, 27 pairs of towels and furnished material for two quilts. It contributed $5 to the Red Triangle war fund, $5 to the Belgian Relief fund, and $5 to the second Red Cross drive.

The fraternal visitation of the parish planned for next Sunday has been put over to the following Sunday, owing to the war drive now taking place.

NAVAL RESERVES WON

The football game at Orono last Saturday between the Rockland Naval Reserves and University of Maine S. A. T. C. was a stirring contest between two well matched teams. There was no scoring until the second period, when after a succession of brilliant plays, ending in a trick pass Rumrummy to Lieut. Jackson, Maine carried the ball across. The attempt to kick a goal resulted in failure, and an expensive one as developments showed.

In the third period the Naval Reserves carried the ball far down the field, where it was lost to Maine. The soldiers were forced to punt, but the ball was blocked by Thompson and was recovered by C. J. Jackson who found it an easy matter to make a touchdown. Devlin booted the ball straight over the bar, and the game was won 7 to 6. Plaudits umpired the game and Art Smith of Maine refereed. The Rockland lineup: Carpenter, Lieut. Downey, H. C. J. Jackson, Lieut. Thompson, C. Gordon Stein, Jr.; Neagle, Lieut. Toland, Lieut. Devlin, Lieut. Morrissey, Brown, Lieut. McKimney, Lieut. Walker, Lieut. H. C. J. Jackson.

EMPIRE THEATRE

The William Fox star, Pretty Peggie Hyland, appears today and tomorrow in a tale of love and patriotism called "Bonnie Annie Laurie." Miss Hyland with realistic scenes of the battlefields of France and No Man's Land, is told a tender story of the romance of a noble-hearted Scottish lassie who becomes the queen of two gallant soldiers of Scotland and America. The dramatic manner in which Fate intervenes, forming the stirring motive of an unexpected conclusion of this clean, wholesome photoplay.

There is also much curiosity to see what the new serial will be like. It is entitled "The Hand of Vengeance," and the opening episode is shown on these two days.

For Monday and Tuesday comes Mary Miles Minter in "The Ghost of Rosy Taylor." The heroine becomes stranded in America, makes a strange find in a public park and decides to impersonate a dead girl. Strange things happen, but the climax will please you.

Thanksgiving for victory is God's due: He is the largest single element in the combined causes of the victory, which has been won. To His Holy Name be the glory. The word "Richardson," another name for the Holy Communion, means "thanksgiving"; this service is the greatest means on earth for giving thanks to God. Come to these services as a part of your celebration.

Choir. Let all members of the choir return as soon as possible for the rehearsal on Sunday morning if they can, so we can do our part in the service Sunday, and arrange for the best place and hour for future rehearsals.

Army and Navy men welcome at all services.

WHEN THE STRUGGLE CEASED

Americans and Germans Bartered For Souvenirs and Swapped Gum, Sausages and Gossip—Perhaps Your Boy Was There.

With the dawn Monday morning came the news of the cessation of hostilities. East of the Meuse regardless of the situation the American second army attacked in force at 8 o'clock. The onslaught was preceded by a tremendous barrage, which was returned in kind by the enemy. For three hours the Americans swept forward, hurling themselves against the wire entanglements. The German gunfire was devastating.

Then, at exactly one minute of 11, the guns on both sides abruptly ceased. The silence was more startling than the deafening roar of the barrage. For a brief minute international rifle fire followed, then came a pause, punctuated by ripping cheers from the trenches on both sides of the lines.

What followed on one sector was perhaps one of the most singular events of the war. Against the sky-line figures were suddenly silhouetted. They appeared cautiously at first but soon growing bolder all along the line, they stood upright. They were Germans. The Americans were not so cautious. As the barrage died, ending in a final luscious rumble in the distance from the big guns, runners went springing along the firing line.

Instantly comprehending, the whole line of doughboys leaped from trenches, foxholes and shell craters, splitting the unopposed silence with a shrill cheer. The roar of voices was like an outburst at some great college contest in America when a contestant scores a classic play. Strange to relate, the defeated enemy joined in the cheering.

The world war was finished. At one minute before 11 it would have meant death to have shovelled one's self above shelters. Not more than a minute after the hour the rolling plain was alive with cheering, shouting men, friend and enemy alike. Not many minutes later Germans and Americans were coming along the narrow stretch of ground so fiercely fought over, some shyly and awkwardly, like embarrassed schoolboys. The first advances were followed by offers from the Americans of cigarettes, chocolate and chewing gum. The Germans in some places reciprocated with offers of hot coffee, bread and sausage. The orders forbidding fraternizing were strict, but the novelty of the situation at times overcame prudence, and doughboys surreptitiously visited enemy dugouts. Along the barbed wire at a road crossing some doughboys and Germans began a brisk barter for souvenirs. The Germans were bewildered by the numbers of Americans speaking German. "Sure my old man was born in Germany," laughingly remarked one stalwart private. "That is nothing," said another, "my mother and father were both born there." A middle-aged landsturmman exclaimed, "Yes, the war is finished, thank the good God. My only wish is to get back to Germany." A slender, pink-cheeked machine gunner said, "Yes, I know the Kaiser has abdicated. Instantly a young aristocrat said, "There will be no revolution in Germany; a new emperor will succeed." An uproar came across and the speaker was drowned out by protesting voices.

Then the Germans began offering the Americans such news and gossip as they knew. The approach of an officer broke up the conversations. The Americans celebrated peace by firing rockets and signals. The night was uproarious with their cheering. The victims took it more calmly. Along the front the majority of them got a good night's peaceful sleep. Behind the lines, machines brilliantly lighted for the first time in four years. French and Americans paraded the streets arm in arm singing the Marseillaise, the Star Spangled Banner and French and American war songs.

WHAT GERMANY MUST DO

Full Text of Armistice Terms Which Representatives of the Defeated Nation Signed—Reparation Required For Damage Done.

The terms of the armistice with Germany were read to Congress by President Wilson at 1 o'clock this afternoon. Those terms are:

1—Cessation of operations by land and in the air six hours after the signature of the armistice.

2—Immediate evacuation of invaded countries: Belgium, France, Alsace-Lorraine, Luxembourg, so ordered as to be completed within 14 days from the signature of the armistice. German troops which have not left the above mentioned territories within the period fixed, will become prisoners of war. Occupation by the Allied and United States forces jointly will keep pace with evacuation in those areas. All movements of evacuation and occupation will be regulated in accordance with note annexed to the stated terms.

3—Reparation beginning at once and to be completed within 14 days of all inhabitants of the countries above mentioned, including hostages and persons under trial or convicted.

4—Surrender in good condition by the German armies of the following equipment: Five thousand guns of heavy, 2,500 field, 30,000 machine guns; 3,000 Minenwerfers; 2,000 aeroplanes (fighters, bombers—firstly D. 738 and night bombing machines), the above to be delivered in situ to the Allies and the United States troops in accordance with the detailed conditions laid down in the annexed note.

5—Evacuation by the German armies of the countries on the left bank of the Rhine. These countries on the left bank of the Rhine shall be administered by the local authorities under the control of the Allied and United States armies of occupation. The occupation of these territories will be determined by Allied and United States garrisons holding the principal crossings of the Rhine, Mayence, Coblenz, Cologne, together with bridgeheads at these points in 30 kilometers radius on the right bank and by garrisons similarly holding the strategic points of the regions, a neutral zone shall be reserved on the right of the Rhine between the stream and a line drawn parallel to it 10 kilometers to the east from the frontier of Holland to the parallel of Gernshelm and as far as practicable a distance of 20 kilometers from the east of stream from this parallel upon Swiss frontier. Evacuation by the enemy of the Rhine lands shall be so ordered as to be completed within a period of 14 days, in all 25 days after the signature of the armistice. All evacuation and occupation will be regulated according to the note annexed.

6—In all territory evacuated by the enemy there shall be no evacuation of inhabitants, no damage or harm shall be done to the persons or property of the inhabitants. No destruction of any kind to be committed. Military establishments of all kinds shall be delivered intact as well as military stores of food, munitions, equipment not removed during the period fixed for evacuation. Stores of food of all kinds for the civil population, cattle, shall be left in situ. Industrial establishments shall not be impaired in any way and their personnel shall not be moved. Roads and means of communication of every kind, railroad, waterways, main roads, bridges, telegraphs, telephones shall be in no manner impaired.

7—All civil and military personnel at present employed on them shall remain. Five thousand locomotives, 50,000 wagons and ten thousand motor trucks in good working order with all necessary spare parts and fittings shall be delivered to the associated powers within the period fixed for the evacuation of Belgium and Luxembourg. The railways of Alsace-Lorraine shall be handed over within the same period, together with all pre-war personnel and material. Further material necessary for the working of railways in the country on the left bank of Rhine to be left in situ.

Stores of coal and material for the upkeep of permanent ways, signals and repair shops left on the left bank and kept in efficient state by Germany during the whole period of armistice. All barges taken from the Allies shall be restored to them. A note appended regulates the details of these measures.

8—The German command shall be responsible for revealing all mines or delay action fuse disposed on territory evacuated by the German troops and shall assist in the discovery and destruction. The German command shall also reveal all destructive measures that may have been taken (such as poisoning or polluting of springs, wells, etc.) under penalty of reprisals.

9—The right of requisition shall be exercised by the Allies and the United States armies in all occupied territory. The upkeep of the troops of occupation in the Rhine land, (excluding Alsace-Lorraine) shall be charged to the German government.

10—An immediate repatriation without reciprocity, according to detailed conditions which shall be fixed, of all war. The Allied powers and the United States shall be able to dispose of these prisoners as they wish.

11—Sick and wounded who cannot be removed from evacuated territory will be cared for by German personnel who will be left on the spot with the medical material required.

12—All German troops at present in any territory which is to be evacuated shall be withdrawn within the frontiers of Germany as they existed on August 1, 1914.

13—Evacuation by German troops to begin at once and all German instructions, prisoners and civilian as well as military agents, now on the territory of Russia (as defined before 1914) to be recalled.

14—German troops to cease at once all requisitions and seizures and any other undertaking with a view to obtaining supplies intended for Germany in Rumania and Russia (as defined on Aug. 1, 1914).

15—Abandonment of the treaties of Bucharest and Brest-Litovsk and of the supplementary treaties.

The Allies shall have free access to the territory evacuated by Germany either through Danzig or by the Vistula in order to convey supplies to the populations of those territories or for any other purpose.

16—Unconditional capitulation of all German forces operating in East Africa within one month.

17—Reparation, without reciprocity within a maximum period of one month, in accordance with detailed conditions hereafter to be fixed, of all claims incurred or reported who may be citizens of Allied or associated States than those mentioned in clause 3, paragraph 19 with the reservation that any future claims and demands of the Allies and the United States of America remain unaffected.

18—The following financial conditions are required: Reparation for damage done. While such armistice lasts no public securities shall be removed by the enemy which can serve as a pledge, to the Allies for the recovery or reparation for war losses. Immediate restitution of the cash deposit, in the National Bank of Belgium and in general immediate return of all documents, specie, stocks, shares, paper money together with plant for the issue thereof, touching public or private interests in the invaded countries. Restitution of the Russian and Rumanian gold yielded to Germany or taken by that power. This gold to be delivered in trust to the Allies until the signature of peace.

19—Immediate cessation of all hostilities at sea and definite information to be given as to the location and movements of all German ships. Notification to be given to neutrals that freedom of navigation in all territorial waters is given to the naval and mercantile marines of the Allied and associated powers, all questions of neutrality being waived.

20—All naval and mercantile marine prisoners of war of the Allied and associated powers in German hands to be returned without reciprocity.

21—Surrender to the Allies and the United States of America of 100 German submarines, including all submarine cruisers and mine laying submarines, with their complete armament and equipment in ports which will be specified by the Allies and the United States of America. All other submarines to be paid off and completely returned and placed under the supervision of the Allied powers and the United States of America.

22—The following German surface warships which shall be designated by the Allies and the United States of America shall forthwith be disbanded and thereafter interned in neutral ports, or for the want of them in Allied ports, to be designated by the Allies and the United States of America and placed under the surveillance of the Allies and the United States of America, namely: Six battle cruisers, 10 battleships, eight light cruisers, including two mine layers, 20 destroyers of the most modern type. All other surface warships (including river craft), are to be concentrated in German naval bases to be designated by the Allies and the United States of America and are to be paid off and completely returned and placed under the supervision of the Allies and the United States of America. All vessels of the auxiliary fleet (trawlers, motor vessels, etc.), are to be disbanded.

23—The Allies and the United States of America shall have the right to sweep up all mine fields and obstructions laid by Germany outside German territorial waters and the positions of these are to be indicated.

24—Freedom of access to and from the Baltic to be given to the naval and mercantile marines of the Allied and associated powers. To secure this the Allies and the United States of America shall be empowered to occupy all German forts, fortifications, batteries and defense works of all kinds in the entrance from the Calmar into the Baltic and to sweep up all mines and obstructions within and without German territorial waters, without any question of neutrality being raised, and the positions of all such mines and obstructions are to be indicated.

25—The existing blockade conditions set up by the Allied and associated powers are to remain unchanged and all German merchant ships found at sea are to remain liable to capture.

26—All naval aircraft are to be concentrated and immobilized in German bases to be specified by the Allies and the United States of America.

27—In evacuating the Belgian coasts and ports Germany shall abandon all merchant ships, tugs, lighters, cranes and all other harbor material, all materials for inland navigation, all aircraft and all materials and stores, all arms and armaments, and all stores and apparatus of all kinds.

28—All Black Sea ports are to be evacuated by Germany; all Russian war vessels of all descriptions, seized by Germany in the Black Sea are to be handed over to the Allies and the United States of America; all neutral merchant vessels seized are to be released; all warlike and other materials of all kinds seized in those ports are to be returned and German materials as specified in clause 28 are to be abandoned.

hands belonging to the Allied and associated powers are to be restored in ports to be specified by the Allies and the United States of America without reciprocity.

31—No destruction of ships or of materials to be permitted before evacuation, surrender or restoration.

32—The German government will notify the neutral governments of the world, and particularly the governments of Norway, Sweden, Denmark and Holland, that all restrictions placed on the trading of their vessels with the Allied and associated countries, whether by the German government or by private German interests, and whether in return for specific concessions such as the export of ship-building materials or not, are immediately cancelled.

33—No transfers of German merchant shipping of any description to any neutral flag are to take place after signature of the armistice.

34—The duration of the armistice is to be 30 days, with option to extend. During this period, on failure of execution of any of the above clauses, the armistice may be denounced by one of the contracting parties on 48 hours previous notice.

Later Amendments to the armistice terms to Germany show that the Allies are more exacting in their demands than first reported. The conditions are to be stripped entirely of their subsidies, their wolves of the sea which have caused such devastation, instead of 100 as first was stated. A reduction is made in the quantity of some of the military equipment to be delivered up.

35—The German government will notify the neutral governments of the world, and particularly the governments of Norway, Sweden, Denmark and Holland, that all restrictions placed on the trading of their vessels with the Allied and associated countries, whether by the German government or by private German interests, and whether in return for specific concessions such as the export of ship-building materials or not, are immediately cancelled.

I Owe My Life to PERUNA

Mr. McKinley's letter brings cheer to all who may be sufferers as he was. Read it:

"I can honestly say that I owe my life to Peruna. After some of the best doctors in the country gave me up and told me I could not live another month, Peruna saved me. Travelling from town to town, throughout the country and having to go into all kinds of badly heated stores and buildings, sometimes standing up for hours at a time while playing my trade as a auctioneer, it is only natural that I had colds frequently; so when this would occur I paid little attention to it, until last December when I contracted a severe case, which, through my neglect on my part, most too late, I began doctoring, but, without avail, until I heard of Peruna. It cured me, but I cannot praise it too highly."

It Cured Me

HELP HIM CONTINUE NOW THAT PEACE HAS COME

He wants to play as hard as he fights!

YOUR boy has carried his love of sports overseas. Almost within hearing of the Hun, he wants to knock out grounders and have a catch. He has learned two new games—bomb-ball and volley-ball and he has introduced one-o'-cat to the vacant lots of France.

"Come on, buddy! Put it over the pan!" he yells, and the pan is the tin hat which he wore a few hours ago when he went over the top to find the Hun.

Further back, in the training areas, track athletics and boxing are on an organized basis. There are "twilight leagues" where every unit in an area has its team. World's series players this year wear a new uniform—the uniform of our fighters overseas.

There's military value in these sports, the high officers believe. For play can turn a fighter's leisure hours into making him a better fighter. His periods of idleness are taken out of the liability column and made into assets. Play means an outlet for surplus energies, and an intake for morale.

From the start the job of putting system into sports has been entrusted to these agencies of morale. They have provided balls and gloves and bats and masks and nets. They have rounded up 2,000 of this country's best directors of athletics.

Why you should give twice as much as you ever gave before!

THE need is for a sum 70% greater than any gift ever asked for since the war began. The Government has fixed this sum at $170,500,000.

By giving to these seven organizations all at once, the cost and effort of six additional campaigns is saved.

Unless Americans do give twice as much as ever before, our soldiers and sailors may not enjoy during 1919 their

2000 Athletic Directors
2500 Libraries supplying 5,000,000 books
85 Hostess Houses
15,000 Big-brother "secretaries"
Millions of dollars of home comforts

When you give double, you make sure that every fighter has the cheer and comforts of these seven organizations every step of the way from home to the front and back again. You provide him with a church, a theatre, a cheerful home, a store, a school, a club and an athletic field—and a knowledge that the folks back home are with him, heart and soul!

You have loaned your money to supply their physical needs. Now give to maintain the Morale that is winning the war!

They have sent the kind of men who can make up new games to suit conditions and who can organize the old games well.

The orders which these organizations have placed for athletic materials are the largest single orders now on record—enough to go to every town and village where Americans are billeted. And more must follow every week.

They say the Germans have no love of sports. That may explain a lot of things! Let's keep our boys as fond of play as when they left for France!

the strong bond of friendship and loyalty existing between the employees of The Courier-Gazette and the proprietors of this newspaper, was again evidenced Tuesday evening in the complimentary banquet which was tendered to Arnold H. Jones, president of the Rockland Publishing Co., at the Jones Cafe in Bankin block. Mr. Jones had been invited to dine with his son and a few friends, as he supposed, but upon arriving at the restaurant found nearly all of the members of the newspaper staff seated at the tables. Together with several former employees, who always had been pleasure in joining with their old associates on such occasions. Following the excellent

Sandy Kilday, a Scotch slowaway, comes to this country in search of his fortune. He makes his way to Kentucky with a man of doubtful character, and there saves the life of his sweetheart's dissipated brother, who is about to be burned by a mob because of a murder he is supposed to have committed. The story is nicely told on the screen today and tomorrow in a story called "Sandy," with Jack Jackson and Louise Huff playing the leads. It is an absorbing story of a gritty boy who won't go against adversity.

Far away Sierra Leone, known as "the white man's grave," was selected for the location of a strong photograph, "The White Man's Law," which will be shown Monday and Tuesday, with Sessie Haywaka, the famous Japanese actor as the star. An exciting battle in a canoe is staged during this picture, and the renegade Englishman who practices deception on the spot from the mission meets a terrible fate.

PEACE HAS COME AT LAST

But your boy is still doing heavy duty in France

He wants a place to rest, a place to get warm, a place to smoke and get a hot drink and hear somebody talk United States.

He sees a light ahead. It's a hut!

Do you think he cares whether that hut is run by the Knights of Columbus or the Y. M. C. A., Jewish Welfare Board or the Salvation Army? Not much! He knows what he wants and he knows that he'll get it—whatever uniform the folks inside happen to be wearing.

Your boy knows what real democracy means.

He's fighting to make it something bigger and better and finer than it ever was before. He's the world's greatest authority on democracy today. Take his word for it!

Keep the hut fires burning!

A hut is your fighter's home over there. It is his store, his theatre, his church, his school and his club.

It is the place where he writes your letters.

It is the place where he reads his books and magazines, where he and his friends get around a piano and sing or listen to a phonograph.

It is the place where all the movies are given, and the concerts and the minstrel shows and vaudeville. Often it is the only place within reach that is dry and light and warm and clean.

A hut may be a shed or tent or a fine old chateau or a hotel. Sometimes, at the front, it's just a battered little shack—the only building left standing in town.

On the fighting line, it's just a board laid across two boxes with a sign nailed to a tree.

The sign doesn't matter—it's what the hut gives your fighter.

Back up these seven organizations without thought of race or creed, because your boy knows that he is always welcome everywhere, and he needs them all.

Why you should give twice as much as you ever gave before!

The need is for a sum 70% greater than any gift ever asked for since the world began. The Government has fixed this sum at $170,500,000.

By giving to these seven organizations all at once, the cost and effort of six additional campaigns is saved.

Unless Americans do give twice as much as ever before, our soldiers and sailors may not enjoy during 1919 their:

3600 Recreation Buildings
1000 Miles of Movie Film
100 Leading Stage Stars
2000 Athletic Directors
2500 Libraries supplying 5,000,000 books
85 Hostess Houses
15,000 Big-brother "secretaries"
Millions of dollars of home comforts

When you give double, you make sure that every fighter has the cheer and comforts of these seven organizations every step of the way from home to the front and back again. You provide him with a church, a theatre, a cheerful home, a store, a school, a club and an athletic field—and a knowledge that the folks back home are with him, heart and soul!

You have loaned your money to supply their physical needs.

Now give to maintain the Morale that is winning the war!
